

Celebration of World Theatre Day 2022

World Theatre Day is celebrated every year on March 27. Designated by the International Theatre Institute (ITI) in 1961, this day celebrates the essence, beauty, and importance of theatre arts, their significant role in entertainment, and the symbolic impact that theatre has on life. This day also serves to inform governments, politicians, institutions, and stakeholders around the world who have not yet realized the value of theatre to the people and its potential for economic growth. The same event is celebrated on April 05, 2022 by BAM Khalsa College to make students aware of the power of theatre.

The event was organised by Department of Languages of BAM Khalsa College, Garhshankar. Prof. Rittu Singh was the convener of the event. In this, a speech contest was organised and many students participated in the same. Best students were conferred with prizes. Special performance of college students as Bhands captivated the entire audience. The event was a great success. On this occasion, Prof. Jaspal Singh (HoD) addressed the students and made them aware about the art of theatre. Prof. Kanwaljit Kaur performed her duty as stage secretary, whereas all other faculty members, including Prof. Arwinder Arora, Prof. Kiranjot Kaur, Prof. Navdeep Singh, Prof. Poonam were present.

Principal, Dr. Baljit Singh applauded the event and asked the faculty to keep organising such events to hone the talent of students. He especially congratulated the HoD and the convener for organising this event.

