

Teachers' Day Celebrations and Orientation Program of B.Com. & M.Com. First year Students Dated: 05-09-2024

The Department of Commerce & Economics at B.A.M. Khalsa College, Garhshankar, hosted an orientation program for the new students admitted into the B.Com. and M.Com. first year classes. Business Students' Association (BSA) under the direction of Head of the Department Prof. Kanwar Kulwant Singh organized this event very successfully. The audience was greeted by Miss Sejal Sakia, President of the BSA.

Prof. Kanwar Kulwant Singh then greeted the students and explained the regulations and procedures for new students. He also talked with pupils and expressed his excitement and gratitude for choosing BAMKC as their academic home. He also shared a few thoughts and pieces of advice with them. This event featured a variety of activities such as music, dance, and poem reading.

Principal, Dr. Amandeep Heera also joined this event. She congratulated the whole faculty of the Department on the Teachers Day. She welcomed students to this prestigious institution by wishing new students success in the presence of the whole faculty of commerce and economics department.