

International Seminar Organized by Arts Department (Liberal Arts Society)

On 18 Feb, 2025, the Liberal Arts Society of Babbar Akali Memorial Khalsa College, Garhshankar, in collaboration with Punjabi Jagat Sabha, Canada, successfully organized an International Seminar on “Naitik Kadran Keemtan Da Mool Jharna: Parivar, Samaj, Sikhiya”. Under the leadership of College Principal, Dr. Amandeep Heera, and coordinated by Prof. Lakhwinderjeet Kaur & Prof. Kamaljeet Kaur, the seminar brought together scholars and intellectuals to discuss the significance of moral values in shaping individuals, families, and society. S. Bhulewal Ratthan, Member, SGPC, Principal, Dr. Jasvir Singh (Sri Guru Teg Bhadur Khalsa College, Anandpur Sahib), Dr. Surjit Singh Bhatti (Key-note Speaker), Ajaib Singh Chattha, Dr. Gurpreet Kaur (Head, Dept of English, SGTB, Khalsa College, Anandpur Sahib), Principal Dr Ranjit Singh (Bhai Sangat Singh Khalsa College, Banga), Prof. (Rtd.) Balwinderjeet Kaur Bhatti, (Panjabi University, Patiala), Dr. Jang Bhadur Singh (Resource Person), SGGGS Khalsa College, Mahilpur), S. Balbir Singh Chiangara (International Sikh Preacher) and participants across many institutions graced the occasion.

The event started with an inaugural session featuring enlightening speeches by distinguished academicians, followed by parallel academic and technical sessions that explored the role of education, Gurbani, and culture in preserving moral values. The seminar concluded with a thought-provoking valedictory session where key takeaways were shared, emphasizing the importance of ethical values in today's world. Prof. Harwinder Kaur, Dept of History conducted the stage.