

Bandi Chhod Diwas and Diwali Celebration

On the occasion of Bandi Chhod Diwas and Diwali, the Business Students' Association (BSA) of the Department of Commerce organized a vibrant celebration under the guidance of Prof. Kanwar Kulwant Singh, Head of the Department. Principal Dr. Amandeep Heera graced the event as the Chief Guest.

The programme began with a warm welcome by Miss Mehak, President of BSA. The entire department was beautifully decorated by the students, showcasing their creativity and festive spirit. Various competitions were held, including Rangoli making, Diya decoration, dance, music, and poetry, in which students participated enthusiastically.

Principal Dr. Amandeep Heera interacted with the students, extending his best wishes for Diwali and appreciating the efforts of the faculty members. Prof. Kanwar Kulwant Singh congratulated the BSA members for organizing such a successful and joyous event. Dr. Ajay Dutta, Head of the Department of Computer Science and Applications, also addressed and blessed the students. Dr. Gurpreet Singh, Chairperson of BSA, encouraged students to continue organizing such programmes in the future.

The event concluded with the distribution of prizes and sweets among the participants and attendees. The winners were as follows:

- Miss Ashmeen Kaur – Best Dressed
- Miss Navneet Kaur – Best Performer
- Miss Kamaljot – Best Diya Making
- B.Com II Class – Best Rangoli

The celebration witnessed the enthusiastic participation of students and faculty members from both the Department of Commerce and the Department of Computer Science and Applications. The event was a true reflection of teamwork, joy, and cultural spirit.
