Visited to Know about the Working of Chandigarh SMART City Integrated Command & Control Centre

Date
15/9/2022

The Integrated Command and Control Centre (ICCC) has been implemented in Chandigarh by BEL under the Smart City mission of the Govt. of India, to provide safety and security to citizens, efficient service deliveries and sustainable growth.

Dr. Ajay Dutta(HOD, Computer Science) has organized a visit to Smart City Integrated Command and Control Center(ICCC) for computer science students of B.A.M. Khalsa College, Garhshankar. This trip was planned to motivate the students by providing them the practical understanding of latest technologies and how work is done in company's environment.

Mr. Ashish, the Consultant of Smart City Project, explained us all about this project in detail. He explained that the command centre will act as the brain of the city with an on-premise data centre hosting all relevant solutions for all field systems and data analytics tools for informative decision-making, better disaster management and smarter governance. He and his team co-operated us in all ways. They also show us the whole building, computer labs, and their server workstations.

This trip was memorable to everyone. Also, Mr. Ashish has invited the new ideas from our students to make the city smarter. In the last minutes, Dr. Ajay Dutta thanked them to give us their precious time, knowledge and information about the project "Smart City".

A Documentary on the Life of “Shaheed-E-Azam Bhagat Singh” Shown to the Students

On the 115th birth anniversary of S. Bhagat Singh, BAM Khalsa College, Garhshankar under the banner of Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat organised a programme for the great freedom fighter and national hero of the country.

On this occasion, the College Principal

Dr. Baljit Singh also addressed the students and asked them to bring out the best of them. He also asked the youth to take a pledge on his birth anniversary that they will not leave their country and will work hard here to make the country the best.

Prof. Ritu Singh and all other members of 'Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat' of BAM Khalsa College made arrangement to show a documentary on the life of S. Bhagat Singh. The function took place at Language Lab of the College. The students took pronounced interest in this documentary and left the lab with new energy and vision.

An Extension Lecture on “Emotional Intelligence (EI)”

The age of modern man is full of new challenges and stress. This turmoil can be seen in almost all the spheres of life. We need to find a solution to tackle this situation, in which EI comes to our rescue. EI has become even more important than IQ. Emotional intelligence (EI) is the ability to identify and regulate one's emotions and understand the emotions the others. EI helps you to build relationships, reduce team stress, defuse conflict and improve over all mental health of the individuals. Students, after Post COVID 19, are facing many problems and feel themselves lost.

In order to facilitate its students, the faculty of the college tries its level best. Department of Languages and Social Sciences organized an extension lecture on the theme “Emotional Intelligence for a Better Mental Health and Academic Success”. The lecture was organized on Sept. 24, 2022 at College Library Hall. Daniel G. Mekonnen, an international research scholar, was invited as speaker to address the students of the college. Mr. Daniel provided a great insight to this new emerging science. He gave a detailed lecture on self-awareness, social-awareness, self-regulation, relationship-management, empathy & social skills. The students showed great interest in this lecture and many questions were asked from the speaker, in response to which Mr. Daniel provided satisfactory replies to the students of the College.

Principal, Dr. Baljit Singh also addressed the audience and gave a warm welcome to the speaker. Principal, Dr. Baljit Singh also laid great importance to emotional intelligence and asked the students to seek help from the Holy Scriptures.

These texts make us emotionally strong and one can master his emotions by seeking help from the same. Principal also congratulated both the departments and Prof. Navdeep Singh (Co-Ordinator) for organizing such a wonderful and meaningful event for the students. Prof. Jaspal Singh, Prof. Lakhwinderjeet Kaur, Prof. Ritu Singh, Prof. Arvinder Singh, Prof. Harwinder Kaur, Prof. Arvinder Kaur, Prof. Navdeep Singh and all other members of the faculty were present there.
