Tree Plantation Drive on World Earth Day at B.A.M. Khalsa College, Garhshankar
Date: 22 April 2025

To get the instructions of Col. Deepinder Singh, Commanding Officer, 68 Pz Bn NCC, a tree plantation drive was successfully organized on the occasion of World Earth Day at B.A.M. Khalsa College, Garhshankar on 22nd April 2025. The event was conducted in collaboration with 68 Pz Bn NCC. Programs were aimed at fostering environmental awareness and promoting sustainable practices among the youth.

The event was graced by Ex. Nakhindar Singh, Secretary Education, DCS/PC, as the chief guest. He addressed the gathering and motivated NCC cadets to take the message of environmental conservation to their villages, emphasizing that such initiatives are crucial for protecting our planet for future generations.

Dr. Anandhjiw Nijwa, Principal of B.A.M. Khalsa College, highlighted the significance of World Earth Day and appreciated the efforts of NCC cadets in taking the lead in environmental protection. She encouraged everyone to participate in more such eco-friendly activities.

Ms. Gargpreet Singh, Associate MCC Officer (AMCO), expressed heartfelt gratitude to all the dignitaries, guests, and participants for their active involvement and support in making the event a success. Dr. Kamraj Kaurant Singh, Head of the Vocational Department, also appreciated the spirit and dedication of the cadets and encouraged them to continue working towards the betterment of society.

The plantation drive witnessed enthusiastic participation from NCC cadets, who planted several trees. This initiative not only beautified the college campus, but also reinforced their commitment to environmental conservation.
